

The Will of God

Frederick William Faber 1849

Ada Rose Gibbs 1899

*Jeremiah 10:23 "O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself:
it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps."*

1. I wor-ship Thee, sweet will of God, And all Thy ways a - dore;
2. I have no cares, Thou bless - ed will, For all my cares are Thine!
3. He al - ways wins who sides with God; To him no chance is lost;

And ev - 'ry day I live, I seem To love Thee more and more!
I live in tri - umph, Lord, for Thou Hast made Thy tri - umphs mine.
God's will is sweet - est to him, when It tri - umphs at his cost:

I love to kiss each print where Thou Hast set Thine un - seen feet;
Ride on, ride on, tri - umph - ant - ly, Thou glo - rious will, ride on!
Ill that He bless - es is our good, And un - blest good is ill;

I can - not fear Thee, bless - ed will, Thine em - pire is so sweet.
Faith's pil - grim sons be - hind Thee take The road that Thou hast gone.
And all is right that seems most wrong, If it be His sweet will.

Gibb's tune utilizes verses 1, 6, 9, & 12-14 of Faber's hymn, two per stanza..

Chorus

I wor-ship Thee, sweet will of God, And all Thy ways a - dore;

And ev - 'ry day I live, I seem To love Thee more and more!
