

Why will You do without Him?

Frances Ridley Havergal 1876

Ada Rose Gibbs 1900

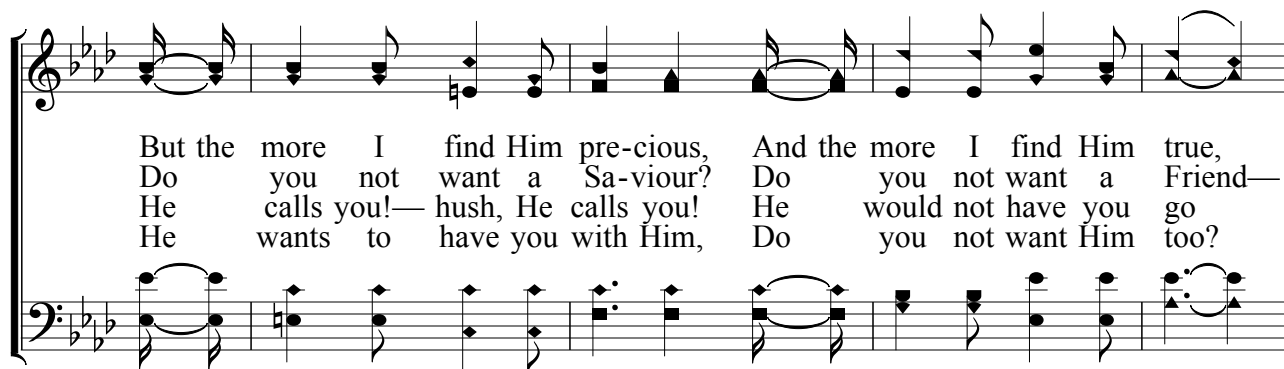

Hebrews 2:3 "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation..."

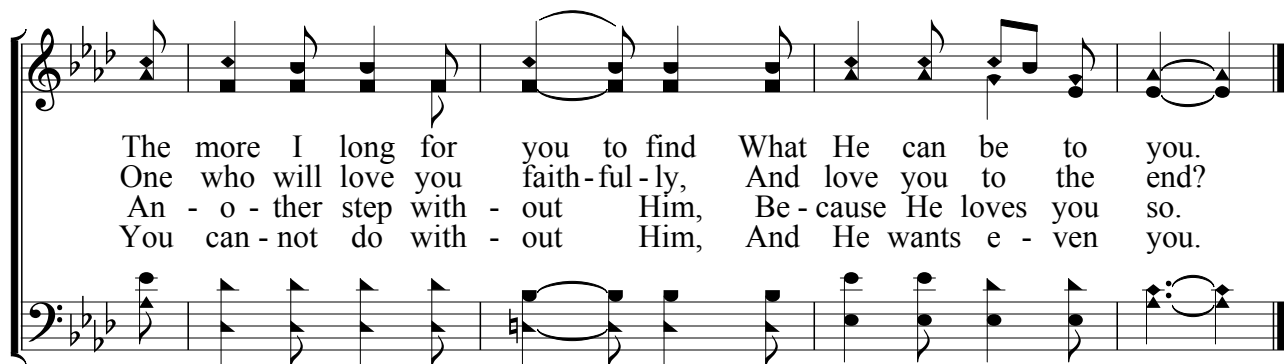

1. I could not do with - out Him! Je - sus is more to me
2. Why will you do with - out Him? Is He not kind in - deed?
3. Why should you do with - out Him? It is not yet too late;
4. Why will you do with - out Him? He calls and calls a - gain:

Than all the rich - est, fair - est gifts Of earth could ev - er be;
Did He not die to save you? Is He not all you need?
He has not closed the day of grace, He has not shut the gate:
"Come un - to me! Come un - to me!" Oh, shall He call in vain?

But the more I find Him pre - cious, And the more I find Him true,
Do you not want a Sa - viour? Do you not want a Friend—
He calls you!— hush, He calls you! He would not have you go
He wants to have you with Him, Do you not want Him too?

The more I long for you to find What He can be to you.
One who will love you faith - ful - ly, And love you to the end?
An - o - ther step with - out Him, Be - cause He loves you so.
You can - not do with - out Him, And He wants e - ven you.

Arranged from Havergal's poem, "What Will You Do Without Him?" written April 9, 1876, while at The Leasowes, a house-and-garden parkland estate in Shropshire county, England.