

Almost Saved is Wholly Lost

"... what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" — Matthew 16:26

A. R. W. 1914

A. R. Walton 1914

1. Al-most saved you wait-ing stand, Heed-ing not the Lord's com-mand;
2. Al-most saved at Je-sus' feet, Al-most filled with joy com-plete;
3. Al-most saved, but wait-ing still, Strug-gling 'gainst a stub-born will;
4. Al-most saved, how sad 'twill be, When the Mas-ter calls for thee;

Fine

At His feet, oh come and bow, He will save you, save you now.
While you hear the Sav-ior's voice, Will you in His love re-joice?
Know-ing not how soon 'twill be, When death's an-gel calls for thee.
Do not let this chance pass by, But on Je-sus now re-ly.

D.S. saved, just count the cost: Al-most saved is whol-ly lost.

Refrain

D.S.%

Al-most saved, is but to fail; Al-most saved will not a-vail. Al-most
