

In the Dewy Pastures

"He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters." — Psalm 23:2

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt 1899

John Daniel Patton 1899

Gently; don't rush.

1. In the dew-y pas-tures, 'neath a might-y Rock, Je - sus, bless-ed
2. They shall find re-fresh-ing, where "still wa-ters flow," Foun-tains of sal-
3. On His ten-der bos-om, safe from all that harms, Lit - tle lambs He

Shep-herd, leads His ran-somed flock; Ev - 'ry need sup - ply - ing, giv-ing
- va - tion mur-mur sweet and low; Still He on-ward leads them, up the car - ries, fold - ed in His arms; Thru the vale of shad - ow, nev - er

them re - pose, Guard-ing them se - cure - ly from their man - y foes.
rug - ged steep; Know-ing all their weak-ness, He will guide and keep.
need they fear, For their lov - ing Shep-herd bids a light ap - pear.

Refrain

In the dew-y pas-tures, 'neath a might-y Rock, Je - sus, bless-ed
They shall find re-fresh-ing, where "still wa-ters flow," Foun-tains of sal-
On His ten-der bos-om, safe from all that harms, Lit - tle lambs He

*The composer used only the first stanza's lyric for the refrain. It is altered here, to repeat each stanza just once in the refrain, instead of singing verse 1 four times.

In the Dewy Pastures (continued)

Shep-herd, leads His ran-somed flock; Ev - 'ry need sup - ply - ing, giv - ing
- va - tion mur-mur sweet and low; Still He on-ward leads them, up the car - ries, fold - ed in His arms; Thru the vale of shad - ow, nev - er

them re - pose, Guard - ing them se - cure - ly from their man - y foes.
rug - ged steep; Know - ing all their weak - ness, He will guide and keep.
need they fear, For their lov - ing Shep - herd bids a light ap - pear.

