

In the Dewy Pastures

"He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters." — Psalm 23:2

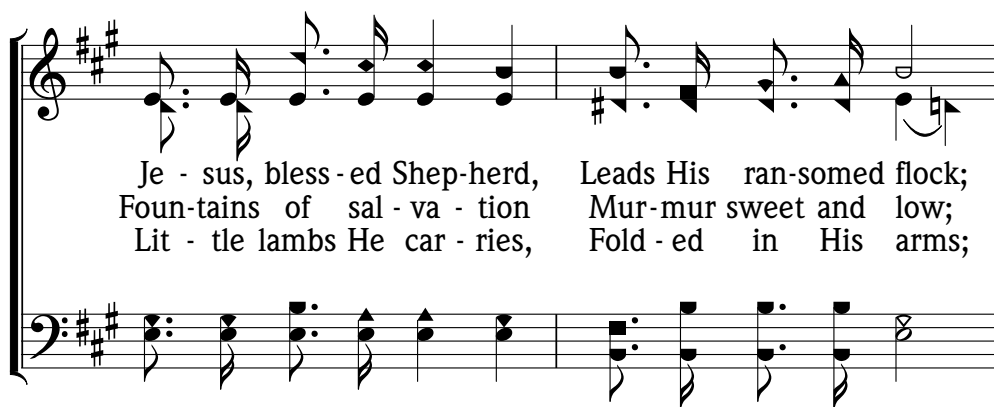

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt 1899

John Daniel Patton 1899

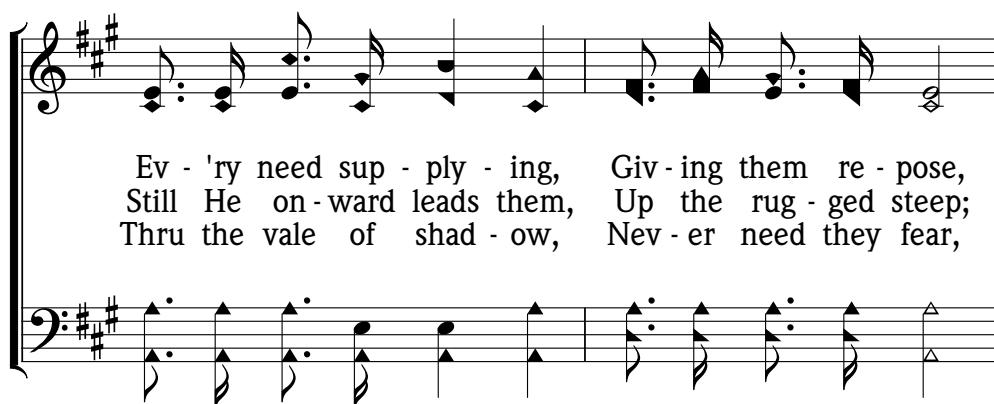

Gently; don't rush.

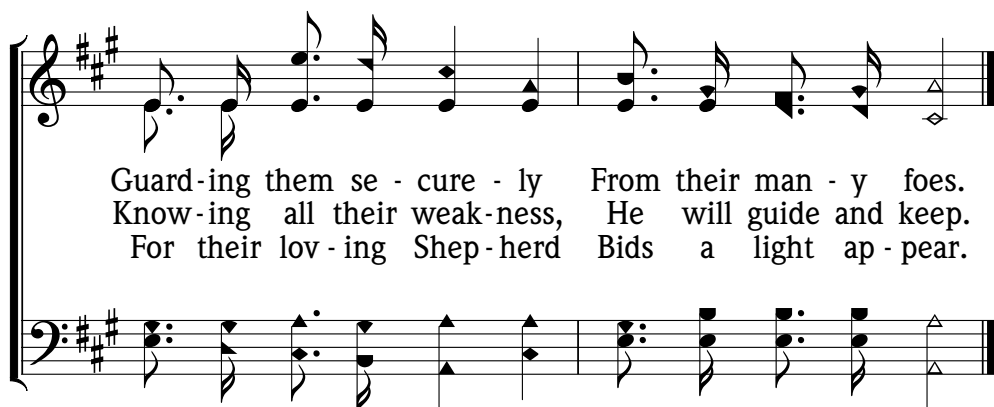

1. In the dew - y pas - tures, 'Neath a might - y Rock,
2. They shall find re - fresh - ing, Where "still wa - ters flow,"
3. On His ten - der bos - om, Safe from all that harms,

Je - sus, bless - ed Shep - herd, Leads His ran - somed flock;
Foun - tains of sal - va - tion Mur - mur sweet and low;
Lit - tle lambs He car - ries, Fold - ed in His arms;

Ev - 'ry need sup - ply - ing, Giv - ing them re - pose,
Still He on - ward leads them, Up the rug - ged steep;
Thru the vale of shad - ow, Nev - er need they fear,

Guard - ing them se - cure - ly From their man - y foes.
Know - ing all their weak - ness, He will guide and keep.
For their lov - ing Shep - herd Bids a light ap - pear.

*Originally the refrain was a repeat of the first stanza. Here, each stanza is repeated.

In the Dewy Pastures (continued)

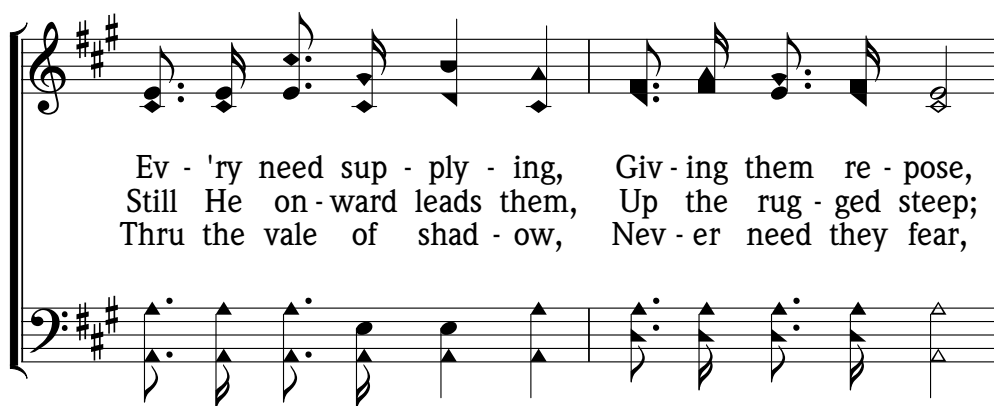

Refrain

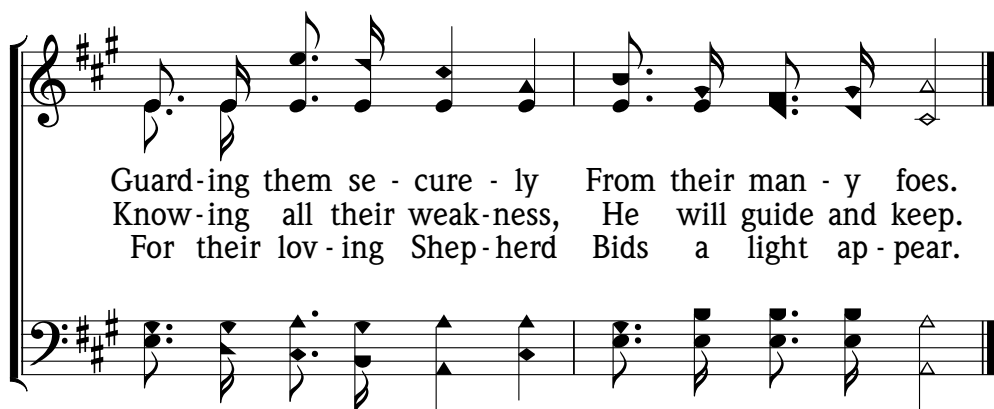

1. In the dew - y pas - tures, 'Neath a might - y Rock,
2. They shall find re - fresh - ing, Where "still wa - ters flow,"
3. On His ten - der bos - om, Safe from all that harms,

Je - sus, bless - ed Shep - herd, Leads His ran - somed flock;
Foun - tains of sal - va - tion Mur - mur sweet and low;
Lit - tle lambs He car - ries, Fold - ed in His arms;

Ev - 'ry need sup - ply - ing, Giv - ing them re - pose,
Still He on - ward leads them, Up the rug - ged steep;
Thru the vale of shad - ow, Nev - er need they fear,

Guard - ing them se - cure - ly From their man - y foes.
Know - ing all their weak - ness, He will guide and keep.
For their lov - ing Shep - herd Bids a light ap - pear.