

Lord, I am Coming to Thee

"I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee . . ." — Luke 15:18

T. S. T. 1959

Slowly, with feeling

Tillit S. Teddlie 1959

1. Lord, I have wan-dered so far from the fold; Sin-sick and wea-ry, I'm
 2. Hours I have spent in the night of de-spair, Hun-gry and lone-ly, where
 3. Since there is par - don, O Lord, let me be On - ly a ser-vant, at lost in the cold. Still there is par - don for me, I am told; none seemed to care. Yet in Thy house there is bread, and to spare;

 home and with Thee. In deep con - tri - tion, Thy mer - cy my plea,

D.S. — O - pen Thine arms to a poor, way-ward child;

Fine Chorus

Lord, I am com - ing to Thee. Com - ing to Thee with a Lord, I am com - ing to Thee.

D.S. al Fine

soul sin de - filed, Com - ing for par - don, to be re - con - ciled,