

O Lord, Remember Me

"But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me." — Matthew 14:30

From George Frederick Root's "Hour of Praise"

Unknown c. 1872

Unknown c. 1872

1. When storms a-round are sweep-ing, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;
2. When walk-ing on life's o - cean, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;
3. When weight of sin op - press - es, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;

When lone my watch I'm keep-ing, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;
Con - trol its rag - ing mo - tion, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;
When dark des - pair dis - tress - es; O Lord, re-mem-ber me;

'Mid fires of e - vil fall - ing, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;
When from its dan - gers shrink-ing, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;
All through the life that's mor - tal, O Lord, re-mem-ber me;

A - mid the tempt - ers' voic - es call-ing, Lord, re-mem-ber me.
And when, like Pe - ter, deep I'm sink-ing, Lord, re-mem-ber me.
And when I pass death's shad-'wy por - tal, Lord, re-mem-ber me.

In 1873, George F. Root altered lyrics of this song to fit a popular, secular tune, entitled "KNIGHT'S FAREWELL," containing lyrics from an 1851 German poem by Gottfried Kinkel.

O Lord, Remember Me

Chorus

Re - mem - ber me, re - mem - ber me, O Lord, re - mem - ber me;

Re - mem - ber me, re - mem - ber me, O Lord, re - mem - ber me.