1. On ev - 'ry first day we as - sem - ble here,
2. Un - lea - vened bread, a to - ken of my Lord,
3. Gol - ga - tha's Hill— held up for all to see,
4. Al - le - giance give, your pledge be - fore all men,

Our faith we tes - ti - fy in mem - o - ry—
In whom no sin, no guile, no blame was found,
Be - tween two thieves, ex - posed in o - pen shame;
Un - til He comes, or till your fi - nal breath;

God's on - ly Son, a sin - ful race to save,
Cursed and re - viled by those He sought to heal,
Christ's blood poured out for my in - iq - ui - ty—
The bread and cup, His bod - y and His blood—

Was sent to die in in - fa - my up - on that tree.
But at God's right hand, He our High Priest now is crowned.
We drink this cup who proud - ly wear His ho - ly name.
As of - ten as we eat and drink, pro - claim His death.
