"I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." — John 8:12

Lurene Highfield 1912

Samuel W. Beazley 1912

1. Like a lamp un - to your feet, A light from Heav - en glows,
2. Like a lamp un - to your feet, The hol - y light-beams shine,
3. Like a lamp un - to your feet, The light makes plain the way,

From the land which needs no sun or moon Nor ev-er dark-ness knows,
With the bright-ness of a cloud - less sun, A glo-ry all di - vine;
Turn-ing not a - side where sha - dows lin - ger, Lest a - far you stray,

And ra - diant with a liv - ing splen - dor Makes the way so bright;
Tho you must go 'mong bri'rs and bram - bles, Noth - ing shall you fear,
Keep in the path, though it is ston - y, Nev - er need you fall,

You can walk, (You can walk,) safe - ly walk, (safe-ly walk,) On the up-ward path of right.
Ev - er walk, (Ev - er walk,) safe - ly walk, (safe-ly walk.) In the light so white and clear.
Ev - er walk, (Ev - er walk,) safe - ly walk, (safe-ly walk,) In the light that shines for all.
