

Will the Angels Come for Me?

"And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other." — Matthew 24:31

J. S. T. 1900

James S. Torbett 1900

1. When my work on earth is end-ed, Will the an-gels come for me?
2. When life's sun is slow-ly sink-ing, And the soul will soon be free,
3. Will the an-gels bear me up-ward To that home so bright and fair?

Will they bear me on their pin-ions O'er the dark and storm-y sea?
Will the gates of heav-en o-pen, And the an-gels come for me?
There to be with Christ my Sav-ior, And the ran-somed gath-ered there?

Chorus

Will the an-gels come for me, an-gels come for me, O, will the an-gels come for me,

When I cross the storm-y sea?
cross the storm-y sea, yes, when I cross the storm-y sea?

Will the Angels Come for Me?

Will they take me home to God,
take me home to God, O, will they take me home to God,

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of B-flat major (two flats) and 4/4 time. The melody in the upper staff begins with a half note chord, followed by a series of quarter notes and eighth notes, with a long melisma line over the final two measures. The bass line consists of a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

When the long, rough way I've trod?
long, rough way I've trod, the long, rough way, the way I've trod?

The second system of the musical score also consists of two staves in the same key and time signature. The melody in the upper staff continues from the first system, ending with a long melisma line. The bass line continues with its eighth-note accompaniment, ending with a final chord.
